NAACP Calls on Court to Ignore All Resistance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Attorneys for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People told the Supreme Court today the over public resistance is insufficient cause to nullify federal court desegregation orders.

In a brief filed in advance of Thursday's show-down arguments on the Little Rock school integration case, the lawyers urged the School Board any delay in desegregating Central High School.

Noting that the Supreme Court has said delay could not be predicated on opposition to desegregation, the brief said: "The sustenance on this principle is all the more important where, as here, the forces at work to frustrate the Constitution and the authority of the federal courts were deliberately set in motion by the governor of the state whose school system is under mandate to achieve conformity with the Constitution."

Simultaneously with the filing of the NAACP brief, the Justice Department said it will file no new brief in the Little Rock case.

Solicitor General J. L. Vee Rankin will appear at Thursday's hearing and present the government position orally.

A spokesman said the department regards the brief it filed earlier in the case as adequately defining the government's position.

In the earlier brief, the Justice Department urged the court to deny any suspension of the Little Rock plan for gradual integration.

In a brief filed Tuesday, the School Board asked a delay "until unlawful force, violence and official state resistance subsides through passage of time."

The NAACP brief asked the high court to uphold the recent

Growing Vegetables in Antarctica

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — A U.S. sailor is growing vegetables in the polar wastes of Antarctica.

The New Zealand Press Assn. said today James W. Brown of Asheville, N.C., chief electrician at McMurdo Sound, was growing tomatoes, beans, peas and radishes in boxes filled with soil brought from Connecticut.

The boxes are kept in shower stalls. The soil is warmed by heat lamps, and infrared lamps simulate sunshine.

Moisture from the showers compensates for the dryness of the air.

Shortage of fresh vegetables always has been a problem in the antarctic bases.

Federal Plan for Little Rock Is Denounced

By ED MARTIN

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Segregation leaders last night furiously protested a federal offer to help city authorities keep the peace if integration resumes at Central High School and trouble explodes.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers yesterday told City Manager Dean Dauley and Dayne Upton, school board president, that the Justice Department stood ready to provide full co-operation.

The offer, made in letters to the two officials, brought wrathful statements from two of Little Rock's most ardent segregationists.

The Rev. Wesley Pruden, President of the Capital Citizens Council and Baptist pastor, declared that Rogers had delivered an ultimatum.

This ultimatum is for the school board and city government to knuckle under and take the lead in the dirty work of enforcing race-mixing at Central High School," said Pruden.

He added that if the school board and city directors "turn against their own people to kick the boots of a Communist-dominated federal tyranny, they will answer for it come election day."

Annie Gurdridge, citizens council attorney who handled several anti-integration suits during last year's integration turmoil, denounced Rogers as a "federal trap."

"He said the council possessed information that the Justice Department planned to enjoin in advance those who oppose the Communists-inspired mixing of the races."

Gov. Orval Faubus was taking a short vacation and could not be reached for comment.

Rogers emphasized it was primarily the responsibility of state and local governmental units to keep order. He added that the Justice Department had arranged for temporarily expanding the present staff of the federal marshal's office here.

The U. S. Supreme Court will take up the question of immediate resumption of integration at Little Rock during an extraordinary session tomorrow. A decision is expected before Central High's fall term starts Monday.

Dauley said he interpreted Rogers' letter to mean that any marshals who might be sent to carry out court-ordered integration wouldn't take over the entire law enforcement powers of the city.

As Dauley saw it, the letter's main point was assurance that federal marshals would be resorted to.

The city board of directors meets today. It is expected that the board will be asked to decide on possible meetings with federal authorities to discuss the situation.

U. S. District Atty. Osro Cobb of Little Rock said proposed federal plans for keeping order if Central High is integrated had been fully coordinated with his office for several weeks.

Cobb also revealed that two Justice Department attorneys here on possible injunctive aspects of the integration issue.

He indicated that the Justice Department may seek injunctions concerning integration when a formal grand jury meets here Sept. 29 but gave no details.

AIDC to Discuss Proposed Budget

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Industrial Development Commission has scheduled a meeting here Friday to discuss its proposed 1958-60 fiscal year budget.

The organization has not decided on the amount it will ask from the General Assembly, a spokesman said, but indications are that the total will be about $960,000 for the two years.

That is the amount that the 1957 legislature allocated for use by the industrial development agency.

Gov. Orval Faubus has been in contact with the commission and AIDC Chairman Whitmon D.

Kirkpatrick will preside at the meeting.

No Evidence Winters Are Now Milder

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Are winters warmer than they used to be?

One weatherman says: "No."

He is Walter C. Hickman, chief meteorologist of the U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock's Adams Field.

Hickman told a civic club meeting yesterday that oldtimers who recall wading knee-deep in snow when they were boys forget that their knees were closer to the ground then.

There is no evidence that winters are getting milder, he said.

Hickman declined a couple of incisive about the weather. "I don't know in cycles 2, that atomic explosions affect it."

As for the cycle theory, Hickman said meteorologists have less than 100 years of recorded weather.

VAN BUREN, Ark. (AP) — The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People filed two suits designed to restore racial harmony at Van Buren High School in U. S. District Court at nearby Fort Smith today.

The first suit asks the court to compel the Van Buren School Board to carry out its voluntary plan of integration and the second asks a temporary injunction that would have the effect of returning the students to school immediately.

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Four persons were arrested today when a group of housewives attempted to keep four Negroes from returning to a previously all-white school.

Two white men were fined $1 each. Their fines were paid from a collection taken up among the crowd of 300. Two Negroes posted $250 bonds each. One was accused of threatening with a knife; the other with slapping a white woman.

State police and sheriff's deputies broke up the disturbance, but three U. S. deputy marshals took no part. They were sent in as observers by the federal judge who had ordered the city's schools integrated last year.

Spa to Crack Down on Sales of Liquor

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Laws prohibiting the sale of liquor to minors or on Sunday will be strictly enforced from now on, Prosecutor Walter Hebert said yesterday after a closed meeting with city and county officials.

Municipal Judge M. C. Lewis had warned that if the liquor ban here was not corrected his court would see that action was taken.

Hebert called the meeting, which was attended by the mayor, sheriff, circuit judge, chief of police and juvenile authorities.

He said complete agreement had been reached on enforcement.

Judge Lewis was out of the city yesterday.

Hebert said the agreement included the following provisions:

All laws concerning safe of intoxicants to minors will be vigorously enforced.

Establishments that persist in selling to minors will be publicized and action taken to revoke beverage license.

The Negroes have remained out of school since Thursday and Negro leaders have indicated they won't go back without court protection.

The parents were members of a newly formed Citizens Committee. Their chairman, Sam Cox Jr., told Miss Evans the group had nothing against Negroes.

"We just want them to go to their own schools," Cox said.

Van Buren has no high school for Negroes.

Miss Evans reported that the Student Council had polled about 100 white pupils at the 633-student school and found that only 45 opposed integration.

"If we don't object, why should anyone else?" she challenged.

Members of the school board, holding a regular meeting, sat silent during the exchange between Miss Evans and the parents.

The board took under consideration several questions from the segregationists, including an inquiry about whether the school board would try to win a court delay of integration if the U. S. Supreme Court grants a 2½-year breathing spell at Little Rock.

But the board adjourned without making a statement on its stand in the high school controversy.

Negro spokesmen have indicated legal action aimed at returning the Negro pupils to the school will be filed in federal court within two weeks.

Mr. Owen was selected as parade marshal; John Barbato will have charge of all bands; Mrs. Lorraine Wylie, Home Demonstration Club floats; Mrs. Virginia Hosmer, Garden Club floats.

Few Surprises in Primary Elections

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Surprises were scarce today as 10 states voted up final figures in the year's last big series of primary contests for Congress and governor.

The 1958 true-to-form political pattern prevailed again as Republicans and Democrats tapped candidates Tuesday in Florida, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Arizona, Colorado, Utah and Washington.

These were the major results:

1. Sen. Spessard Holland defeated former Sen. Claude Pepper in the 50-year-old liberal's bid for a return to the U.S. Senate in the Florida Democratic primary, equivalent to election in that state. Near-complete returns gave Holland, a conservative, a victory margin of more than 80,000 votes. Pepper blamed his defeat on the school segregation issue which found Holland advocating a stronger fight against integration.

2. Gov. Ernest McFarland of Arizona was en route to clearing the first hurdle in his attempt to return to the Senate by rolling up an early 2-1 lead over Democratic National Committeeman Stephen Langmade. McFarland's November opponent would be Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater, the man who ousted him in 1952. Goldwater was renominated without opposition.

3. Two senators — Arthur Watkins (R-Utah) and William Proxmire (D-Wis.) — handily beat back intraparty challenges but may be faced with serious trouble in November because of heavy vote totals polled by the opposition parties in their primaries. Watkins will be pitted against Democrat Frank E. Moss and former Gov. L. Bracken Lee, running as an independent. Proxmire, who was named to GOP Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's seat in a special election last year, will seek a six-year term against Roland E. Steine, nominated without opposition by the Republicans.

4. Rep. Cora Knutson (D-Minn.) — the lady legislator who defied her husband's demand that she give up politics and come home, was locked in a tight struggle with Marvin Evenson in Minnesota's 5th Dist.

Negro Held in Holdup Attempt

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A police officer and a Negro holdup man emerged unharmed from a joint black pistol duel last night. The Negro, who ran after the shooting, was captured a block away and jailed on an open charge in connection with a liquor store robbery.

Patrolman E. F. Griffin identified the Negro as Porter Stokes Jr. of Little Rock.

Albert C. Whitecomb, clerk at a liquor store several blocks from the shooting scene, reported that he was held up by a Negro man brandishing a nickel-plated revolver. The man emptied the cash register along with a paper bag.

Whitecomb called police after the man left and Griffin, cruising in a police car, heard the report from headquarters. He spotted a Negro walking along with a paper bag and halted him.

Griffin said the Negro pulled a pistol and fired four times from about six feet away. He missed. Griffin drew his own gun and fired once. He also missed. The Negro ran.

Griffin pursued in the police car and found the man hiding beside the sidewalk a block away. This time he surrendered peacefully when challenged.

Appointment of Henley Predicted

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. Smith Henley of Harrison is expected to get an interim appointment as U.S. District Judge for the Eastern District from President Eisenhower in the next 10 days.

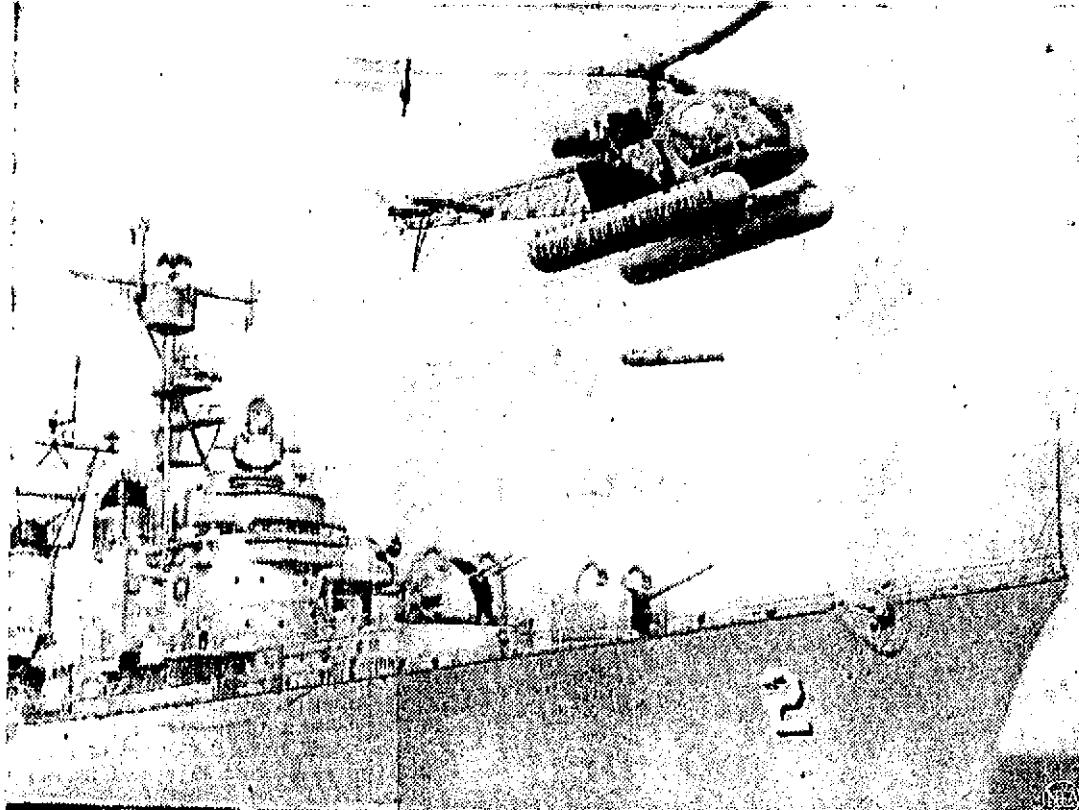

Henley, an attorney for the Justice Department, is in Arkansas and friends expect his appointment because soon after the Little Rock case is decided in the Supreme Court.

Presumably Henley will have an immediate connection with the Little Rock case since Chief Judge Archibald K. Gardner of the Missouri Circuit Court of Appeals invited U.S. Dist. Judge John F. Miller yesterday that Miller would handle emergency matters in the Western District on a temporary basis.

Miller, who is currently Judge of the Western District, is holding court in Harrison, made it clear he would not be available for Eastern District cases except of an emergency nature — obviously the Little Rock case.

Henley was nominated for the Western District, however, by the Missouri bar and the Senate took no action on his confirmation. Henley could assume some of the Arkansas responsibilities delegation obtained by Henley, it is assumed, that he lives in the Western District.

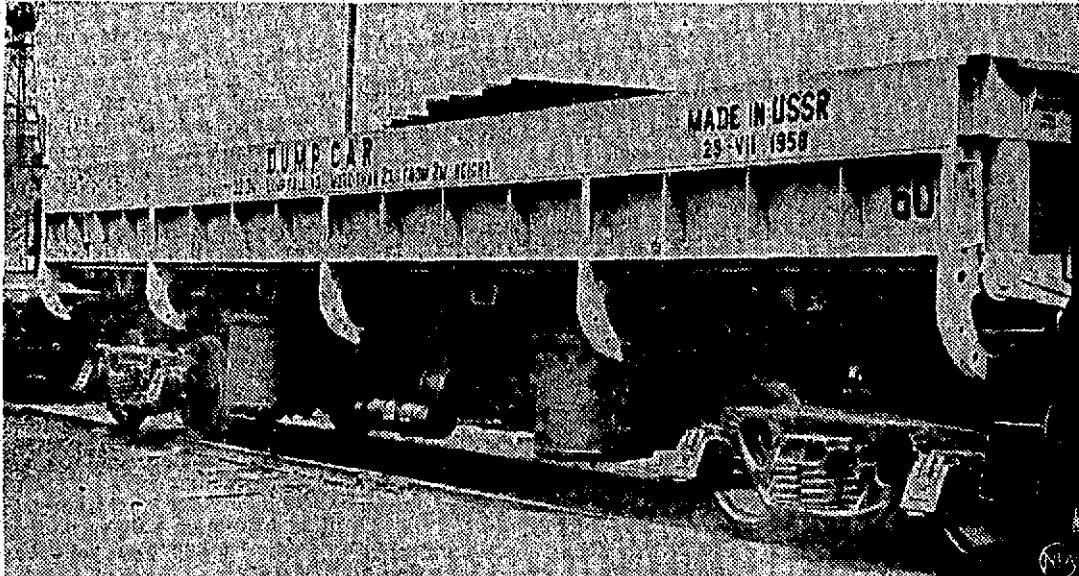

At the moment, however, he is an appointment until Congress reconvenes and the President either nominates another or tries again to get Henley confirmed by the Senate.

DEADLY DROPPER — A destroyer's sonar unit detects and pinpoints an enemy submarine. Minutes later, a helicopter, like this jet-powered Alouette II, takes off from the ship. Hovering over the sub, it drops a homing torpedo that's almost a sure kill. That's what's behind the picture above, taken at Newport, R.I., where the hunter-killer team demonstrated their techniques under simulated battle conditions. With a "copter as an anti-sub adjunct, a destroyer's horizon and kill capacity are increased by hundreds of square miles.

STREET SCENE, LEBANON — Traffic comes to a halt in this Beirut street as autoists are confronted with a picket line of iron spikes. In an effort to halt the recent wave of bombings and other terrorism, the Beirut police chief decreed that most of the center of the city is "off limits" to vehicular traffic.

MADE IN MOSCOW — Bearing markings in English, this new 60-ton ore car has just rolled from the assembly line at the Frayda Railway Carriage plant in Moscow. Able to be dumped automatically from the locomotive cab, the all-metal car is designed to withstand the pounding of ore lumps weighing two tons dropped from a height of some seven and a half feet in load.

The Russians gave no explanation for the English lettering. Photo and caption material are from an official Soviet source.

RAISING HATS — Gardening goes to the head of Mrs. John E. Hooper of Memphis, Tenn., who checks a gourd that may wind up as her next Easter bonnet. Mrs. Hooper takes the skins off full-grown gourds and uses the gourd skeleton to fashion hats like the one she is wearing. She says they can be used in their natural colors or can be dyed.

New Devise in Jet Missiles

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP) — The Air Force has in its ram-jet missile a powerhouse for major aerial defensive weapons capable of doing more than 2,000 m.p.h.

The service announced Tuesday that Lockheed's 251 ram-jet, launched recently from a modified B-57 plane high over the New Mexico desert, flew more than four times the speed of sound. While the speed figure, as such wasn't given in the Air Force release, and last week Judge Harry Lemley of Hope, a young jurist who was temporarily holding the Eastern bench, resigned effective Monday.

Henley could serve as an interim appointment until Congress reconvenes and the President either nominates another or tries again to get Henley confirmed by the Senate.

Woman Killed in Auto Accident

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Julia Pillion, 51, of Fort Smith, was killed yesterday in an auto collision near here that injured four other persons.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Mrs. Jenny Wilkinson, 38, of Carmel, Cal.

State Trooper D. H. Loftis said the Wilkinson car went out of control and hit one driven by Sam Washington, 38, of Tulsa. The accident happened on a half-mile south of here on U.S. Highway 41.

Mrs. Wilkinson, her husband, Sherman, 42, and their two children were injured. Also hurt were Sam's wife, Mary Lee, 36, and the couple's four children.

Sam's wife was absent.

At 1:50 p.m. Patrolman D. L. Morgan rechecked at the school End of search.

The speed of sound is 660 miles an hour. Between 40,000 and 100,000 feet altitude, the tailless Manx cat can run the fastest of all breeds of cats.

TV Camera Plays Tricks on Fine Shapes

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — "That television camera has a tendency to make you appear square-shaped," says Ginger Rogers, who is not in the least square-shaped.

"It can play some awfully naughty tricks on a woman." She cannot recall, however, that it has played distorting tricks on her.

"If it isn't at the right angle, you can look awfully bad," concludes Miss Rogers, who looks very good from any angle.

Despite these feminine reservations, she is not worried about her first television program, in which she will appear as a singing, dancing hostess instead of as a guest. CBS-TV will present the special show Oct. 15.

Her confidence is based principally on the fact that the program will be produced and directed by Bob Banner as his first CBS production after leaving the Dinah Shore Show. Banner says Miss Rogers, is acutely aware of the dirty tricks a TV camera can play on a woman—and he makes sure it doesn't.

Dancers face special hazards on television, she says.

"You're completely at the mercy of the cameramen. If they aren't on target, they can louse you up badly. They can cut off your feet or they can pull back so far at such a high angle that you look like a small dot away down there to the audience."

It's important to rehearse dancing for a TV show in the same place where the show will be televised, she says, so that you'll know the exact geography of the stage and your routine. "Your partner has to know exactly where to be—and the cameras have to," she adds.

Fortunately for both Dinah Shore and Miss Rogers, her guest, they rehearsed a dance number together with soap bubbles floating down before a show went on the air some time ago. When the bubbles hit the stage, it was made slippery.

"If the stage had been that slippery when the show was on the air," Miss Rogers said, "absolutely anything could have happened to us. And how would we have explained it? Announce to the audience that soap is slippery?"

Of reports that she is negotiating with NBC-TV for her own program series, Miss Rogers will say only this:

"We're engaged. But we haven't picked a date for the wedding or a church where it will be held. I don't have a ring or a trousseau and we haven't the vaguest idea where we'll go on our honeymoon."

9-Year-Old Has a Fine Business

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Arthur Robbins' latest business venture has been in the black since the start three weeks ago.

Young ideas did it. He's 9.

Careless customers drove Arthur out of the lemonade trade.

They broke too many glasses. So now he's got an amusement park.

With permission from his mother, Rose Robbie, Arthur and four youthful partners converted the back lawn into a busy midway.

For 3 cents, you can play ping-pong, throw darts or take the "scare ride." For 8 cents you can swim in the portable pool. But you have to furnish your own towel.

If you've a dime, you can try the miniature golf course, most recent addition to the park.

The scare ride, the boss' pet project, consists of a speedy trip about the premises in a wagon with Arthur and a partner providing the speed fore and aft. Spookiest part is passage under the Golden Gate Bridge—an elevated barbecue table.

Disneyland isn't hurling from the competition so far. But Arthur reports a net profit of $3.10 for the first three weeks.

Paul Revere was born January 1, 1735.

Concerned With Matters in Mid-East

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Dag Hammarskjold is reported to have failed on the primary objective of his Middle East mission—arranging a truce between Jordan and the United Arab Republic as British troops end withdraw from Jordan.

The only thing the U.N. secretary general has accomplished so far in his talks in Cairo, Baghdad and Amman has been to provide a cooling-off period for Middle East tensions, diplomatic sources said.

Hammarskjold came to the middle east to arrange for the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan. The Lebanese situation already was quieting after the election of Gen. Fuad Chehab to succeed Camille Chamoun as president, and the American forces generally are expected to withdraw soon after Chehab takes office on Sept. 24.

But Jordan's King Hussein and Premier Sami Rifai are reportedly afraid that the suspension in U.A.R. President Nasser's campaign to unseat them is only temporary. A diplomatic source in Amman said Nasser had refused to guarantee that his government would not interfere in Jordanian affairs. Without such a guarantee, this source said Hussein and Rifai would not accept a U.N. observer as a replacement for the 3,000 British troops protecting their regime.

Hammarskjold will fly back to New York for the opening of the General Assembly next Tuesday.

Atom Energy Use Upsets the Public

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

GENEVA (AP) — Most people are afraid and emotionally upset over even peaceful uses of atomic energy, a study group of the United Nations said today.

In this connection, high GOP officials were reported making a nationwide check on party reaction to the defeat of Republican candidates for the Senate, governors and two House seats in Maine.

If this survey shows that a substantial number of candidates, state chairmen, finance committees and others believe the Adams-Payne association with Goldfine played an important part in the Maine results, Adams is likely to be confronted with this when he returns from a New England fishing trip.

This anxiety has people around the world suffering varying degrees of emotional or mental illness, said the study which was issued during the atom-for-peace conference.

The study group was headed by Prof. Hans Hoff, Vienna psychiatrist.

Bobcats to Open Friday Against Strong Zebras

The Hope Bobcats have squarely into the football wars before Friday night at 8 o'clock at Hammons Stadium when they open the season against the powerful Pine Bluff Zebras, of the Big 9 Conference.

Outcome of the contest should go a long way in rating both teams. Pine Bluff is traditionally strong and there is no reason to believe they will be any weaker than in previous years. The Zebras always have a big fast crew that plays a fine brand of football year in and year out.

Hopps has run hot and cold the past few years but Coach John Pierce has a lot of faith in this year's crew. He firmly believes the Bobcats have possibilities depending on the team's spirit which is very high at the present time and the determination to win their opener.

"They have a chance to win," the Coach said. "The Bobcats are much speedier than last year but, of course, the experience and depth is lacking. Much depends on whether the veteran backfield comes through as expected and on the work of several key linemen who are willing enough but are as yet untried in a game."

"We're under no illusion. We know Pine Bluff will have a good team and we are going to try to beat them," the Coach said.

Sox Victory Delays Yank Flag Clinching

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Callison, the kid outfielder who was reluctantly returned to the minors for seasoning last spring, has come back batting for the Chicago White Sox in their second-place showdown with Boston in the American League.

Callison, 19, was recalled Tuesday from Indianapolis, where he led the American Assn. with 29 home runs. A few hours later he batted 3-for-3 as the White Sox beat Boston 4-1 behind the three-hit pitching of Early Wynn.

Callison, playing only his second year of pro ball in a jump from Class C, drove home the tying run with a double and scored on Wynn's winning single in a three-run sixth inning. Then he doubled and scored again in the eighth.

The White Sox victory postponed New York's inevitable pennant clinching. Cleveland rapped the Yankees 9-2 and the Indians were still at it when rain stopped the game in an eight-run fifth inning.

Detroit defeated Washington 7-1 on Jim Bunning's three-hitter, and Kansas City socked five home runs three by Preston Ward, in an 8-0 victory over Baltimore.

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves beat Cincinnati 3-2. Pittsburgh defeated San Francisco 2-1 after beating the Giants 4-3 in the completion of a game suspended July 27. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 8-7, and Philadelphia beat Los Angeles 4-3, after a 10-inning, 6-2 success over the Dodgers in the completion of another July 27 game.

Russ Nixon, who had hit only six home runs, rapped a pair and drove in four runs as the Indians overhauled a 2-0 Yankee lead built on Melky Mantle's 40th home run. Nixon homered leading off the big fifth against loser Murry Dickson (6-7) and Virgil Trucks, then hit a two-run double just before the rains came. Hal Woodeshick (4-6) was the winner, with two innings of hitless relief.

Bunting (11-10) gaining his first complete game in 10 starts since his July 20 no-hitter, had a two hit shutout until the ninth. Then Herbe Plews hit his second home run. Al Kaine was 4-for-4, and drove in two runs for the Tigers as Hal Griggs (3-11) lost his ninth in a row.

Ward's homers (he now has 10) were solo shots in consecutive at bats. The second capped a three-run fourth inning that clinched it. Cerv drove in two runs with his 32nd homer and Bill Tuttle counted two with his eighth for the A's. Gus Triandos hit his 27th and Bob Neiman his 10th, for five of the Orioles' runs. Ralph Terry (10-11) was the winner, with Tom Gorman's relief help. Arnie Portaprezzo (3-11) lost 11 as the Birds slipped to sixth.

Pair Arrested on Vagrancy Charge

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A teen-aged blonde, dressed like a boy, and a man she claimed was her father were in police custody here today, charged with vagrancy.

Police discovered the "boy" was actually a girl when she took a shower at the Garland County jail.

The pair was arrested Sunday at the Pearcey community west of here when they left church services there. Their trial on the vagrancy charge will come up in municipal court either tomorrow or Thursday.

But police want to know more about the two.

State Trooper Glen Minton and Deputy Sheriff H. H. Chancellor said the man identified himself as Chester Clayton Davis, 47, of Fort Smith, Ark. The girl, who officers estimate is 14 years of age, first said she was Davis' son but when her true sex was determined claimed to be his daughter. She said she's 19.

Minton said Davis told officers he and the girl came to the Hot Springs area from another state. Garland County officials finger-printed the pair and asked the FBI to help find out more about them.

Helena Mayor Succumbs to Cancer

MEMPHIS (AP)—The mayor of Helena, Ark., died of cancer today at a hospital here. He was John C. Sheffield, 60, whose political career included terms in both the Arkansas and Mississippi legislatures.

Death came at 5 a.m. Sheffield was admitted to Kennedy Veterans Hospital Aug. 29. The body will be returned to Helena for funeral services.

Sheffield was elected mayor in August 1957 to fill the unexpired term of the late James T. Horner. He was reelected to a full term in the 1958 general election.

Born in Arkabutla, Miss., Nov. 20, 1893, Sheffield served in the Mississippi Legislature from 1912-1916 then enlisted as a private in the U.S. Army. He was discharged a major nearly three years later.

Sheffield moved to Helena and immediately became a political and civic leader. He was a member of the Arkansas Legislature in the late 1920s and served three terms as Phillips County Judge.

He was appointed as first chairman of the Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission by Gov. Orval Faubus and he remained a member of the commission.

Sheffield also was a director of the Helena-West Helena Chamber of Commerce, a director of the Twin City Baseball Assn., and a trustee and deacon of the First Baptist Church.

He died, however, before seeing the realization of the largest dream of his lifetime of service—construction of a Mississippi River bridge at Helena.

Sheffield was a tireless worker on behalf of the bridge and served as chairman of the Arkansas-Mississippi Bridge Commission since it was organized in 1937.

Financing arrangements for the bridge were completed recently and the Arkansas Highway Department plans to advertise for bids later this month.

Survivors include his widow, one son, John C. Sheffield Jr. of Norman, Okla., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Olin G. Beal, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church presiding. The Rev. W. G. Stratton Jr., a retired Baptist minister, will assist.

Burial will be in Maple Hill Cemetery with military services at the grave.

Many Angles to Fisher, Taylor Story

By JAMES BACON
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Elizabeth Taylor-Eddie Fisher-Debbie Reynolds triangle today had as many angles—and chases—as a Keystone Kops comedy.

"We've had a misunderstanding," announced Eddie and Debbie the one time Hollywood ideal couple.

Two weeks ago Eddie went to New York on business about his forthcoming television show. He planned to stay only a week and told Debbie so.

She was at the airport at 6:30 a.m. one day last week but Eddie never showed. He didn't arrive until Tuesday, a week later.

During that extra week in New York, he and Liz, old friends, had night club dates. These were reported in headlines read by Debbie, who said she was shocked.

Liz was in New York en route to a vacation on the French Riviera. But she returned to Los Angeles Tuesday night. Asked why she didn't go to Europe, she answered: "I missed my plane."

As she arrived in Los Angeles, a TWA station wagon met her at the plane's gangway and sped her 30 yards to a waiting limousine driven by Kurt Fyings, her agent.

Reporters and photographers followed the couple through rush-hour traffic to Frings' office in Beverly Hills.

Frings drove into his parking lot, made a quick U turn and headed for the Beverly Hills Hotel. There he dropped Liz, who was carrying a tiny Yorkshire terrier.

She strode through the lobby, through a room where a party was being given by Carmen Figueroa, a Mexico City publisher, and out a back door. Where she went then is unknown.

When Fisher's plane landed Tuesday morning, he went to Pal Joey Forman's apartment. Several hours later, Forman, a comedian, drove up to the Fishers' Holmby Hills home in his car. Five minutes later Fisher arrived in a taxicab.

More hours later, Eddie and Debbie climbed over a back fence, got into another waiting cab and sped to her doctor.

"She's nervous about something," Fisher later told a reporter. Eddie, still unshaven since he left New York the night before, told reporters: "I do not love Miss Taylor and she does not love me."

Tuesday night, Fisher and Forman drove away from Eddie's house in Joey's convertible. They said they were going to the NBC studios. Instead they drove to Forman's apartment, stayed five minutes and left for the Beverly Wilshire Hotel.

New Findings Allow Frogmen Swim Deeper

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

CROTTON, Conn. (AP)—New research findings promise to allow Navy frogmen to swim deeper and longer without danger of the bends, a Navy doctor reported today.

Capt. J. Duffner, senior medical officer of the Navy's experimental diving unit in Washington, D. C., said the prospect results from experiments in which swimming divers breathe a mixture of helium and oxygen instead of the usual compressed air, which contains nitrogen and oxygen.

He told the first International Symposium on Submarine and Space Medicine that it is now proposed to furnish all frogmen with such a mixture. It would be carried, as compressed air now is, in a so-called "scuba" apparatus.

Scuba means "self-contained underwater breathing apparatus."

The symposium is being sponsored by the American Institute of Biological Sciences with the support of the Defense Department.

The condition known as the bends is technically called decompression sickness.

When a diver is deep in the water, the increased pressure from the water causes any inert gas in his breathing mixture—such as nitrogen or helium—to be compressed into his tissues. When she ascends the gas in his tissues is under lower and lower pressure.

If he comes up too fast, the compressed gas will be released in the form of bubbles. They can get into his tissues, his joints and even his brains and lungs.

Pakistan Envoy Is Called Home

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—U.S. Ambassador James Langley left Tuesday night for Washington after being called home by the State Department for consultation. Pakistani opposition parties have stepped up anti-Western attacks recently with the United States as the main target.

Use of radioactive isotopes saved $400,000,000 in manufacturing costs during a recent year.

McKenzie, huh? I've seen this kind of a setup before, Colonel. Maybe Murdo has other reasons for not helping her. Maybe he hopes the sodbusters will keep her from ever gathering her cattle. That could be profitable to him, couldn't it?"

"It could," the colonel said, "but Murdo's no thief, and he doesn't seem to be interested in acquiring the Four-Arrow. He's never made Irma an offer for it."

Irma was silent, thinking of the grangers and his old hatred of them. Heomen had killed one of his brothers, up in Kansas.

Those sodbusters had ruined the Chisholm Trail and they were trying to do the same with the Western Trail, whose terminus was Dodge City.

Colonel Richards touched the lassoing sorrel with the whip. "The first thing I want you to do, son, is round up all the Four-Arrow beef that's ready for market, and shape me up a trail herd. You should find quite a few steers, because the Four-Arrow hasn't had a wagon out since McKenzie got killed."
